

You're Gonna Love Him

Big Daddy Weave

If you love the fight and the drama and glory
In every unlikely underdog story
Where the written off rise to the top
If you like the guy who says what we're all thinking
And calls out the lie of the proud and religious
He's done no wrong but He won't stop
Defending the one who got caught

Jesus, He's not who you think
He is more than you hoped He could possibly be
He is gracious and gentle, unstopably kind
And you'll never find
Another who loves you like He can
You're gonna love Him

Maybe you think there's no hope to hold on to Cause you've been let down by the ones you let hold you for so long
If you've ever felt like you just don't belong here
Deep down in your soul the restlessness points to
And ache that won't leave you alone
An emptiness longing for home

Jesus, He's not who you think
He is more than you hoped He could possibly be
He is gracious and gentle, unstopably kind
And you'll never find
Another who loves you like He can
You're gonna love Him

If you're getting tired of the lies you've been living'
There's no wrong you've done that can't be forgiven
He'll chase all the darkness away
The moment you whisper His name

Jesus, He's not who you think
He is more than you hoped He could possibly be
He is gracious and gentle, unstopably kind
And you'll never find
Another who loves you like
Jesus, He's not who you think
He is more than you hoped He could possibly be
He is gracious and gentle, unstopably kind
And you'll never find
Another who loves you like He can
You're gonna love Him
You're gonna love Him
