

Angela Dangerlove

Big Head Todd and the Monsters

Every time you wake, dreams come tumbling down.
The careless love you take - I'm just another face in the crowd
Your forgetful eyes keep driftin'.
Am I ever going to catch them now?

Angela Dangerlove, I'm yearning my life away.
Angela Dangerlove, I guess I got time to waste.

Ever since you've shaken me I'm knocked down under your spell.
Your disenchanted rhapsody plays me like a hollow shell.
These days go laughing by.
Am I ever gonna catch you now?

Angela Dangerlove, I'm yearning my life away.
Angela Dangerlove, I guess I got time to waste.

That I don't know you well is something I can't deny.
Just enough to dream, a fool by the trick of the light.
I came closer than you think.
I saw a tear fall from your eye.

Angela Dangerlove, I'm yearning my life away.
Angela Dangerlove, I guess I got time to waste.
I guess I got time to wait.
