

Wake Up

Big K.R.I.T.

(Wake up, Wake up
Wake up, Wake up)

Thank God for the day, thank God for the morning Won't take this here for granted no good Lord I gots to get on it
With every breath I take, or move I make, I gots to keep wantin g
A better life for me, and all of mine, no time for that yawning
In the bed waiting, procrastinating, I gots to be hungry Too old for games that don't mean a thing, can't play with my h omies
Just know I'm paying dues if I don't pick up for ya, whenever y ou phone me
Cuz being broke ain't fun and that pity party I threw is starti ng to get boring
Good morning

I know today gonna be the best day of my life, my life
(Wake up, wake up)
I know today gonna be the best day of my life
(Wake up, wake up)
Gotta keep my head out the clouds and my feet on the ground

Gotta be realistic, stop talking and listen Cuz at the blink of an eye your life'll pass you by, good Lord you missed it now You're wishing that you went slow, took advantage of that 2-4 Yeah you gave your all to get your back from off the wall but y ou can give more Stand tall against the grain, be yourself don't do the same As the next man cuz all paths are different, so don't jump the train
Hell, we can't complain, for this borrowed time
So don't misuse yours, cuz you can't borrow mine
Good morning

I know today gonna be the best day of my life, my life
(Wake up, wake up)
I know today gonna be the best day of my life
(Wake up, wake up)
Gotta keep my head out the clouds and my feet on the ground
