

Where I Stand

Big Sugar

I've been haunted 'cause I've wanted
Yes, I've wanted to ask you
Would you steal and then kneel
Like that feelings comfort you?

I've got a feeling that you're stealing
And no healing could get through
Understand where I stand
And what I'm trying to say to you

I don't have what you have
Lord, there's some things I won't do
When you're dying, no more lying
No more crying for you to do

Understand where I stand
What I am, what I do?

Some folks say, "Judgment day
Time to pay"
But when you lay in decay
Too late to pray

Understand where I stand
And what I say
