

Personal Judgement Day

Big Tent Revival

Gonna be a hot time on the old town tonight
We're goin out; gonna do it up right
But in the middle of a casual grin--
In the blink of an eye, He's coming again
Don't have to listen to what I say
Don't have to bow your head and pray
But your personal judgement day
Is only a breath away

Accepted Jesus at Forty-Five
Said "Man I'm glad to be alive
All my friends are dead you see
And one bad trip and it could've been me"

The bible talks about a book of names--
Souls rescend from the flames
So brother tell me, when it all is through

Do you know Jesus, and does He know you?
