I saw you jump up You and your friends, baby And I heard you say they're playing a jam (there's a jam right here baby) So waving your hand from side to side sugar Hear you're claiming you're a certified man (certified)

I know it might sound strange
But I pictured us alone
And you're kissing me in ways I can't tell - no
If my thoughts of you are true
Then I wanna get with you
So I'll step in while I'm given the chance - yeah

Do you have a girlfriend? Do you have a girlfriend? You're looking real cool You're lookinh real cool Can I have your number? Can I have your number? You don't have a thing to lose Do you have a minute? Do you have a minute? What is on your mind? What is on your mind? I was just thinking I was just thinking We can spend some time

Heard a slow song
You don't waste time baby
When you asked me if I wanted to dance
(sure I wanna dance)
Playing hard to get takes too long, sugar
So I told my friends that I found a man
(you're the one)

I know it mind sound strange
But I pictured us alone
And you're kissing me in ways I can't tell - no
If my thoughts of you are true
Then I wanna get with you
So I'll step in while I'm given the chance - yeah

Do you have a girlfriend? Do you have a girlfriend? You're looking real cool You're lookinh real cool Can I have your number? Can I have your number?
