

Lucky Man

Billy Ocean

Lucky man
I'm a lucky man
Lucky man

Girl heaven knows as long as you're beside me I will feel no pain
And I, I don't have to look no further for love, no never again

You caught me when I was about to fall
Now I'm a giant just standing tall
The pleasure of a thousand words just won't express
To turn away from all this would be madness

Lucky man to have a girl like you
I'm a lucky man, oh baby
I'm a lucky man to have a girl like you
I'm a lucky man

Oh baby without question you're the lady who's been in my dreams
And I cherish every moment that I'm with you, you're my love supreme

Loving the fast lane was all I knew
Hit and run lovers till I ride into you
Forever yours that's my intention
So glad to have love I can't be [?]

Lucky man to have a girl like you
I'm a lucky man, oh baby
I'm a lucky man to have a girl like you
I'm a lucky man, a lucky man
Lucky man to have a girl like you
I'm a lucky man, oh baby
I'm a lucky man to have a girl like you
I'm a lucky man, oh baby

Come a little closer to me sweet thing
Rock me in your charms (All through the night)
I can't believe that it's happening
You in my arms

Lucky man
(So lucky)
(I'm a lucky man)
(So lucky)
You taught me about love
(Lucky man)
(I'm a lucky man)
You caught me when I was about to fall
I'm a giant standing ten feet tall

So come a little closer to me sweet thing
Rock me in your charms (All through the night)
I can't believe that it's happening
You in my arms

I don't have to look no further for love
(I'm a lucky man)
Lucky man

I'm a lucky man
Oh baby
There'll never be another
Come to me sweet thing
I'm a lucky man to have a girl like you
