

Letter To Charlie

Birdeatsbaby

Tie me down Charlie Brown
Wrap me up in a hospital gown
I'll suck your thumb
Eat bubblegum and cry alone in the dark

The dark worries me does it bother you?
But I am the walrus I am the truth
Stealing lines, side-step the mines
Jump on a crack
Break your mother's back

Eight track telepack
Tap her head and watch it crack
Read what you can dream what you don't
The oblivious headaches and the bitter barbiturates
Curl in a ball learn to love the restraints

Well it's hard to feel rejected when your head is a stone
Look at me and what I have done
