

SOMEONE ELSE

Bishop Briggs

I saw my teeth
They cut the floor
The water rushing under the door
Couldn't wake up
Couldn't keep my head above the waves
I was naked
You felt wrong
Inside my body
I got it wrong

We were tryna make up
But I couldn't bare to hear you say my name

I'm trying not to think about it
Push it to the back of my brain
But I hear it screaming shouting
I can't even think of my own name

All I wanna do is be alone
Write a song by myself
All I wanna do is be alone
Lose my phone
Be someone else
Be someone else
Be someone else
Be someone else
Be someone

All I wanna do is be alone
Be alone

I need to smoke just to breathe
To be around you
Not underneath
Sick of distractions
Sick of distractions
Want a reaction
Want a reaction
Issues still the same

I'm trying not to think about it
Push it to the back of my brain
But I hear it screaming shouting
I can't even think of my own name

All I wanna do is be alone
Write a song by myself
All I wanna do is be alone
Lose my phone
Be someone else
Be someone else
Be someone else
Be someone else
Be someone

All I wanna do is be alone
Be alone

Everything's changing all around me
Caught up in the chaos that surrounds me
(All I wanna do is
All I wanna do is
All I wanna)
Slipping even deeper like I'm drowning
(All I wanna do is
All I wanna do is
All I wanna)
Everything's changing all around me
Caught up in the chaos that surrounds me
(All I wanna do is
All I wanna do is
All I wanna)
Slipping even deeper like I'm drowning
(All I wanna do is
All I wanna do is)

All I wanna do is be alone
Write a song by myself
All I wanna do is be alone
Lose my phone
Be someone else
Be someone else
Be someone else
Be someone else
Be someone

All I wanna do is be alone
Be alone
