

Bullied Boy

Biting Elbows

I've been told I'm not a bullied boy
I'm just a kid whose pain brings the others joy
I was pushed and I was shoved
But I could take all of the above

'Cos I thought
I get to hang with you
And you said
Oh no, you know we have never liked you

Wait, I know I belong
The light is red
My anger is born, yeah
This is it
I know you're full of it
Equate a broken nose to a substitute for wit
There's no harm
Break my arm
And I will stand weakly smiling with no cause for alarm

'Cos I thought
I get to hang with you
And you said
Oh no, you know we have never liked you

Wait, I know I belong
The light is red
My anger is born, yeah

Wait, in all seriousness
How could I end up in this mess
Where everybody thinks they have the answers

Wait, I know I belong
The light is red
My anger is born, yeah
