

Love Remains

Black Country Communion

Oh, yeah

Out in the desert
A lone bodhi tree
Cryin' for water and more
Tell me your secret, And you will be free
Lay down your weapons of war

Cold is the season
And long is the Day
Up to the Sky I do Pray
Shelter your reason
And here I will stay
And we will be lifted away

For all I gave
I tried in vain
The Life you save
The Soul regains
For all I crave
Outside it rains

Inside the Love Remains

You're my religion
And you all my trust
Across the sea and the land
Behind the vision
The Gold turns to rust
Now won't you give me your hand?

Hurry my father
Please tell me the score
I see the words on the page
Or would you rather be left
On the shore?
I see the coming of age

For all I gave
I tried in vain
The Life you save
The Soul regains
For all I crave
Outside it rains

Inside the Love Remains

Out in the skyline
You know you are missed
I'm told that you will descend
Out on the Grapevine
You fall into Bliss
You know that I will Defend

Cold is the season
And long is the Day
Up to the Sky I do Pray

Shelter your reason
And here I will stay
And we will be lifted away

For all I gave
I tried in vain
The Life you save
The Soul regains
For all I crave
Outside it rains

Inside the Love Remains

Oh, yeah
