

Paint You a Picture

Blackboard Jungle

Thunder and lightning sleepin' in the same bed
I swear to God sugar I'd love you to death
And though sometimes I laid my hands down on you
Left you all bloody, cryin', black and blue
And I can't comprehend why we do the things we do
Expressing true love by being so cruel

Let me paint you a picture of myself
Paint it from the inside out
I ain't no Picasso, this will have to do
Psychotic little thing I still want you

We both thrive on the thrill of it all
Without the insanity we'd both be bored
But underneath all those twisted games
Lie two hearts together in so much pain
But the madness will flow it'll flow forever long
No matter how far we stray we know we belong

Let me paint you a picture of myself
Paint it from the inside out
I ain't no Picasso, this will have to do
Psychotic little thing I still want you

Oh yes I do

Thunder and lightning sleepin' in the same bed
I swear to God sugar I'd love you to death
And though sometimes I laid my hands down on you
Left you all bloody, cryin', black and blue

Let me paint you a picture of myself
Paint it from the inside out
I ain't no Picasso, this will have to do
Psychotic little thing I still want you

Yes I do, do

Let me paint you a picture of myself
Paint it from the inside out
I ain't no Picasso, this will have to do
Psychotic little thing I still want you

Ooh yes I do, do, do
Oh I want you
Yes I do
Yeah I want you
I do
I do
