

The Stealer

Blackfoot

I went down, to the center of the town
Where my feet was turnin' brown
She stood on the corner, pretty as could be
I said hey good lookin', why don't you come with me

She said, yeah, I'm The Stealer, come to steal your love

The sun was shinin', and the weather was bright
I said tell me baby, what ya doin' tonight
I'm goin' down to the corner, where the music's loud
I'm tired of the city, baby, won't you come around

I said, yeah, ah yes, I'm The Stealer, come to steal your love

I come to steal your love, steal your love
Steal your love baby, ah yeah

Goin' down to the corner, where the music's loud
Tired of the city, baby won't you come around

She said, yeah, ah yes, I'm The Stealer
Come to steal your love
Well I come to steal your love
Steal your love, steal your love, ah yeah
Well I've come to steal your love, steal your love baby
Steal your love
