

Young Girl

Blackfoot

I've seen her in Cosmopolitan
Seen her in Seventeen
Don't you know she turned my head
In all those magazines
I hold her in my dreams at night
As close as I can get
Even though she's unreachable
I just can't give up yet

I know she's gonna be the end of me
But I love you so, love you so
Young girl, young girl

Late at night she drives me mad
When I pull down the shade
Then reality hits me hard
In the light of the day

There's nothing more that I can do
Nothin' left to say
I tried and tried and wished so hard
Still she's so far away

I know she's gonna be the end of me
But I need her so can't let go, no, no
And I know she's got me blind
And I can't see but I love ya so
Love ya so
Young girl, young girl, don't take me
Love's lost and found, girl

You're the one for you're my fantasy
Just got to have you young girl
Oh you know it's right
For you and me tonight
Just got to have you young girl
