

Tomorrow

Blackstar

Let's paralyse this moment
And take one look to stars
The night has come
The city dreams
These seconds leave no scars

Faster than a lightning
Can see through solid walls
Your presence's running to my veins
I bet you're freakin' close

And if this life will ever take us far
So far away that we could reach the star

Never mind tomorrow
All the beautiful colours
Fix that corner into your heart
Burning alive and take away the pain

Never mind tomorrow
All the beautiful sorrow
Will fix that corner into your heart
Singin' along now
Ouh uoh uoh, go!

The best fairy tale story
Is a perfect love of two
Two broken hearts and meant again
Especially for you

My heart is still my prison
There's no way to escape
I wanna be somebody else
Sometimes I cry, I fail

Never mind tomorrow
All the beautiful colours
Fix that corner into your heart
Burning alive and take away the pain

Never mind tomorrow
All the beautiful sorrow
Will fix that corner into your heart
Singin' along now
Never mind I feel so alone

Uoh oh oh oh oh
