

All of the Above

Blake Lewis

Will you have this dance with me
Underneath the sparkling sea of diamond covered dreams
We could dance the bossanova as the sky sends supernovas
Brightly shining they illuminate your eyes
I've been giving this one chance to hopelessly romance you
Into the morning light

Could you be
A.) My world
Could you B.) My one true love
Could you be C.) My girl
Or D.) All of the above

I can barely breathe when you're near
I watch the world disappear as you whisper in my ear
I'll be your gentle Casanova when we're hidden under covers
That's where our love will hold us tight
Rewrite the laws of attraction to our own satisfaction

As we create our world tonight

Could you be
A.) My world
Could you B.) My one true love
Could you be C.) My girl
Or D.) All of the above
All the above
Could you be C.) My girl
Or D.) All of the above

Now lay here with me til the moon decides to sleep
Cause you're still the girl of my dreams
Yes you're still the girl of my dreams
When the morning comes I'm dreaming of you

Could you be
A.) My world
Could you B.) My one true love
Could you be C.) My girl
Or D.) All of the above
All the above
Could you be C.) My girl
Or D.) All of the above
