

Words Of Truth

Blind Stare

Realize the very truth that compromises all we know, all we care

And though the shadows are everywhere

I have come to greater understanding of all the aspects of life

You see, my friend, the universe is sentient, aware, alive

It's all so simple that way

To live again just another day

But we possess something that can't be found

The one and only truth in which they all will be drowned!

The revolution of our kind is the center of the progression

Infiltrate the core system and poison its heart

Claim the kingdom of a thousand stars just for yourself

Use all the means to make the world yours again!

The revolution of our kind is the center of the progression

Infiltrate the core system and poison its heart

We see into the forthcoming day

Our minds are open wide (Eyes open wide)

And they can't force us, regardless of pain

To be like them... again!

All these hours were there waiting for you

But the time was running years ahead of you

There's no sign for salvation in the end

There is no gate to let you in

This is the beginning of a new day

So claim the time and lead the way

Heavenly light that now shines ahead

Is the proof of the new beginning and the end
