

Dumb Guy In Love

Blitzkid

I don't know what I'm doing here
I've got a ringing in my ears
So scared that I ain't got a chance

That explains what I'm doing wrong
Guess I can't shut up and finish this song
Just hold on tight and gimme your hand

Because I know that I'm not much to them
They just look at me as your friend
And now I know that this will Never end

Hey little girl can't you see
That you're the only one for me
Hey little girl can't you see
That you're the only one for me

Kinda reluctant to admit
I never thought it'd come to this
You turned my life so upside down

Now something has made me think
Sometimes you're driving me to the brink
But I kinda like you being around

Well I thought love had passed me by
Just like the folks who gave the eye
I didn't know it could happen to this guy

Hey little girl can't you see
That you're the only one for me
Hey little girl can't you see
That you're the only one for me

Didn't know what I did to get you
But my heart will always be true
Tonight we're singing a new tune

Hey little girl can't you see
That you're the only one for me
Hey little girl can't you see
That you're the only one for me
For me

You're the only one for me
You're the only one for me
You're the only one for me
