Equally Damaged

Blonde Redhead

Maybe I guess He will be alone 'cause we are equally damaged Find your name Do all the same, equally Signal when you can't breathe no more

Say you were me Then you could see the view You know we are equally damaged Don't be a fool Make it easier You learn to say when Signal if you can't say no more

ah ha ha ha ha

Oh don't cross your fingers Sundays will never change They keep on comin' You'll be a freak And I'll keep you Company
