Damaged

Blood On The Dance Floor

I feel the knife is cutting slow
I wish I could say my intentions weren't deadly
I feel like I am letting go
I wish I had said how easy it is to fall for me
I feel like you deserve to know
I wish I didn't have to drag you down with me
That I'll get you high and leave you low
But I have no shame in pleading guilty

I damage like a savage Ruin beauty as I ravage Throw you out like you're garbage I create my own carnage

My walls won't cave in
I won't play pretend
I'm afraid to let you in
Start over just to fuck up again

I fucked up again; I opened a wound

Tore the sutures out of me and only thought of you

I fucked us again; I killed our love true

Tore our world apart and only hurt you

My head is filled with disease I told you; you were warned from the fucking start My heart is black and empty I told you when our love died, it's my fault

My body is cold and bleeding
And now there's nothing I can do to fix what I've done
Without you here with me
I got what I want, I'm leaving now; my battle's won

I damage like a savage Ruin beauty as I ravage Throw you out like you're garbage I create my own carnage

My walls won't cave in
I won't play pretend
I'm afraid to let you in
Start over just to fuck up again

I fucked up again; I opened a wound

Tore the sutures out of me and only thought of you

I fucked us again; I killed our love true

Tore our world apart and only hurt you

Damaged from no recovery
My pain burned into your memory
I'm drowning in a sea of misery
Will anyone come and save me?

I feel the knife is cutting slow I feel like I am letting go

I feel like you deserve to know
That I'll get you high and I'll leave you low

I feel the knife is cutting slow
I feel like I am letting go
I feel like you deserve to know
That I'll get you high and I'll leave you low
