

No Regrets

Blood On The Dance Floor

We could never know it
Who's gonna be there when I roll over
And some decisions I made I know they weren't right
But I have no regrets, never even thought twice
And I have no idea what being good is like
Don't you feel like you've wasted so much time
Was it worth it?

You never wanted to behave
(To behave, to behave, I don't want to obey)
Never had any rules, cause they always break
(Always break, always break, always break, always break)
I never thought I'd see the day
(Don't run away)
People are terrified of what other will say
(No one cares what they say, just do it your own way)

Passed out with no recollection
Phone in my hand, who the fuck was I texting?
It's a damn disaster, keys still in the door
Sweating bodies around me, strangers clothes on the floor
the best nights of our lives
It was so fucking worth it!

You never wanted to behave
(To behave, to behave, I don't want to obey)
Never had any rules, cause they always break
(Always break, always break, always break, always break)
I never thought I'd see the day
(Don't run away)
People are terrified of what other will say
(No one cares what they say, just do it your own way)

Dim the lights like a constant ember
The best nights are the ones I can't remember
Live for tonight

You never wanted to behave
(To behave, to behave, I don't want to obey)
Never had any rules, cause they always break
(Always break, always break, always break, always break)
I never thought I'd see the day
(Don't run away)
People are terrified of what other will say
(No one cares what they say, just do it your own way)

We could never know it
Who's gonna be there when I roll over
