

King of Fallen Grace

Bloodbound

I've been stuck in this hell for so long
Living my life in the darkness
Slowly fading, all hope is gone
Feels like I'm dying inside
Can someone hear me out
And guide me through the dark
So lost in misery...my insanity
The wind and the rain is calling my name
A fallen angel's dying
I'm ready to fly, I reach for the sky
Forever lost, the king of fallen grace
All I feel is the rage in my soul
Growing inside like a fire
Falling deeper into despair
Jaded and broken inside
Can someone hear me out
And guide me through the dark
So lost in misery...my insanity
The wind and the rain is calling my name
A fallen angel's dying
I'm ready to fly, I reach for the sky
Forever lost, the king of fallen grace
The wind and the rain is calling my name
A fallen angel's dying
I'm ready to fly, I reach for the sky
Forever lost, the king of fallen grace
