

Unfinished Rhapsodie

Blue System

Oh I told her once, I told her twice
She doesn't know what I mean
I called her baby bittersweet
Girl with a mandolin
Oh it's too late to stop her now
The girl without a face
'Cause she played this lonely melody
One hand, one heart, one race
The mystery of this melody is
You'll never forget the tune

I hear a wonderful unfinished rhapsodie
With tears oh in my eyes
I hear a wonderful unfinished rhapsodie
Oh blessing in disguise
Sail on a rainbow, sail to my dreams

Oh I told her once, I told her twice
But she's running now to paradise
Still waters run so deep
The sky was crying like a child
The tears oh of a clown
Oh Rosanna's going wild
Oh she brings me down
The mystery of this melody is
You'll never forget the tune

I hear a wonderful unfinished rhapsodie
With tears oh in my eyes
I hear a wonderful unfinished rhapsodie
Oh blessing in disguise
Sail on a rainbow, sail to my dreams
