Mary And The Soldier

Bob Dylan

Come all you lads of high renown that will hear of a fair young maiden And she roved out on a summer's day for to view the soldier's p arading

They march so bold and they look so gay The colours fine and the bands did play And it caused young Mary for to say "I'll wed you me gallant soldier"

She viewed the soldiers on parade and as they stood at their le isure And Mary to herself did say: "At last I find my treasure

But oh how cruel my parents must be To banish my true love away from me Well I'll leave them all and I'll go with thee Me bold and undaunted soldier"

"Oh Mary dear, your parents' love I pray don't be unruly For when you're in a foreign land, believe you rue it surely Perhaps in battle I might fall From a shot from an angry cannonball And you're so far from your daddy's hall Be advised by a gallant soldier."

"Oh I have fifty guineas in right gold, likewise a hearth that' s burning And I'd leave them all and I'd go with you me bold undaunted so ldier

So don't say no but let me go And I will face the daring foe And we'll march together to and fro And I'll wed you, my gallant soldier"

And when he saw her loyalty and Mary so true-hearted He said: "Me darling, married we'll be and nothing but death wi ll part us

And when we're in a foreign land I'll guard you, darling, with my right hand And hopes that God might stand a friend With Mary and her gallant soldier"
