

Funcake like this Sunkist
Big lake you like
I missed all that we had
We pissed away today
It's all gone to

Stay up late, don't drop the ball
We can make it your call
I'm up for anything at all
I'm up for anything at all

Funcake, I'll drive, you brake
We'll shake the world awake
Scream out the words, I'll take
Anything you got with you

Drunk up, dragged around, feel good
Snapped up in half on the ground
Birds are dying all around us
Everywhere I look I can see that

It's too late to think anything
Is ever gonna change
Is ever gonna change
Isn't it strange?

Funcake, oh, I love it, so fine
Feels good and I shove it down
To its knees and then just make it bleed
And cry out for more

Funcake like this Sunkist
Big lake you like
I missed all that we had
We pissed away today
It's all gone to

Stay up late, don't drop the ball
We can make it your call
I'm up for anything at all
I'm up for anything at all

It's too late to think that anything
Is ever going to change
It's too late to think that anything
Is ever going to change

It's too late to that think anything
Is ever going to change
