

Hand Me Back My Life

Bob Schneider

well now d-d-d-d-d-d-d-didn't you tell that you'd be here with the car when i got back from the bank with the money?

and now d-d-d-d-d-d-d-didn't you say your name was natasha but that dude called you petrovka last night at the party?

and d-d-d-d-d-d-d-didn't you tell me you were single but you're not single you're married to a russian mobster, what?

and d-d-d-d-d-d-d-didn't you tell me that you loved me but you just told me that i'm pretty sure you told me that just to use me i said hey, hold on a minute and hand me back my life

'cause i can't take any more of this tonight hey, come on and hold on a minute and hand me back my life
'cause i can't take any more of this tonight

now d-d-d-d-d-d-d-didn't you tell me that you knew how to get back to the border? man this ain't the border, this ain't the border and d-d-d-d-d-d-d-didn't you tell me there'd be somebody that's be waiting for us in the van, you know, with some dry clothes?

and d-d-d-d-d-d-d-didn't you tell me there'd be passports with our pictures on it? man these aren't passports this is bullsh--- and d-d-d-d-d-d-d-didn't you tell me that everything was going to be all right? all right? it ain't all right

i said hey, hold on a minute and hand me back my life
'cause i can't take any more of this tonight
'cause i can't take any more of this tonight i can't take any more of this

na, na, na, na, na, na
na, na, na, na, na, na, na
