

Peaches

Bob Schneider

i love you like peaches you're as sweet as can be
you got me up in a tree where i want to eat you all up every last drop

i love you like a blue sky
on a beautiful day
i love you like a blue sky
hey what can i say i just want you above me i want you to love me

i love you like forever
'cause it's all that we've got
yeah but not what for it's not not the way that it was or could he because

i love you like forever and here's the reason why i wanna eat you all up and not spill a drop and not ever stop
