

Hey Hey Hey Hey (Going Back to Birmingham)

Bob Seger

Line up girls, I'll show you what to do
This boat will sparkle
Like a diamond when we get through
By the numbers there ain't much time
We're gonna start an assembly line

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey

You get the sandpaper, you get the pails
You get the hammer, baby, you get the nails
You get the paint, you get the brush
'Cause we're gonna give it the special touch

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey

We got a magic potion that will help us win
I don't know how to spell it but dip right in Glycooxytonic phosphate, it's the latest scoop
But it's alright girls you can call it, "Goop"

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey

Work the sandpaper, hammer that nail
Tote that paintbrush and lift that pail
Get a rhythm going, nice and easy
Come on and use a little elbow greasey

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey

Okay girls, when we're all through
I'm gonna tell you what we're gonna do
We'll fall right down and have some fun
And I'm gonna kiss you all one by one

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey
Huh, huh, huh

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey
Huh, huh, huh

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey
