

Tomorrow

Bobby Caldwell

Tomorrow
Please go away
How I'm dreading you
Can't you see I'm blue
Let me live in yesterday
You know how I feel
Dreaming dreams of her when our love was new
Wouldn't you agree that all is lost for me
And tomorrow's not worth going through

Tomorrow
No, no not again
You're no good to me
Can't you let me be
Frozen in remember when
I can't face the day without her
Until a miracle occurs
Just let me hide
I'll stay inside tomorrow
