Whatever Happened To Happy

Bobby Darin

Captain Jim, what's wrong with him? He used to be so strong, now he's dying Indian scout, dance and jump about He used to be so brave, now he's crying

Whatever happened to happy Was he all a state of mind? Whatever happened to the happy days We left far behind?

Rainy days, the games we played My room, the place that made me happy Rain would fall so I would call My friend Joe when he would call me happy

Whatever happened to happy Was he all a state of mind? Whatever happened to the happy days We left far behind?

I won't forget them
Things that have passed me by
I can see all the things that used to be Still within the heart of me

Whatever happened to happy Was he all a state of mind? Whatever happened to the happy days We left far behind?
