

Gone (From My Heart)

Bobby Vinton

Gone from my heart is the love I knew
Gone are the dreams that can never come true
Gone are the kisses that thrilled me so
Gone is the flame that set my heart aglow

Why did you leave me for someone new
After I gave all my love to you?
I should forget you, but what can I do?
Though you're gone, I still love you

(Gone from my heart is the love I knew gone are the dreams that can never come true)
Oh, gone are the kisses that thrilled me so
Gone is the flame that set my heart aglow

Why did you leave me for someone new
After I gave all my love to you?
I should forget you, but what can I do?
Though you're gone, I still love you
