

Halfway House

Bonaparte

In the crowd you were waving at me
I know you weren't really waving at me
You were waving at someone else
Well, I used to be someone else
Now these days I'm feeling more like being myself
That's a good thing, maybe you should try it yourself
I'll be cool with that
Yeah, I'm cool with that

There is homecoming after the madness
Satisfaction after the pain
You thought that you're firework of a mess
Well, I'm not even remotely impressed

C'mon, c'mon, c'mon, c'mon
There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
Yeah

Now I'm laying in the gutter looking up at the stars
Maybe halfway through life, they say there's life on mars
I'll be cool with that
Yeah, I'm cool with that
You play tug-of-war with yourself, it's what you do
Okay, listen, I get it, it's not easy being you
But I'm cool with that
Yeah, I'm cool with that

Standing halfway of the stairway to heaven
All done, the fire is gaped to dwell
When we're standing next to each other
Our deciding was to sleep or sell

C'mon, c'mon, c'mon, c'mon
There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
Yeah

There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
Yeah

It's not a midlife crisis
We're just having fun
It's not a midlife crisis
We're just having fun

C'mon, c'mon, c'mon, c'mon
There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
Yeah

There's a party at the halfway house

There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
Yeah, oh

There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house
There's a party at the halfway house