

Into the Wild

Bonaparte

The next war won't be our war neither
Your dazzling dreams and buried a lighter
The only defense is to march in a million
Like rain on the ocean, you and me and...

Cut a wire, be a bird
Shoot the messenger before he can say a word
We have nothing left to keep quiet about
We have nothing left and share everything
Lean on me for the right, right, right
Behind horizons we will find, find, find
A said and sung piece of mind, mind, mind
Over and out into the wild

Don't cast the votes, keep it to yourself
Hand in a blank piece of paper, that's one voice
If I could steal that boat, I'd lead it right to you
No, you will not be alone, that's my choice

Cut a wire, be a bird
Shoot the messenger before he can say a word
We have nothing left to keep quiet about

Lean on me for the right, right, right
Behind horizons we will find, find, find
A said and sung piece of mind, mind, mind
Over and out into the wild

Lean on me for the right, right, right
Behind horizons we will find, find, find
A said and sung piece of mind, mind, mind
Over and out into the wild

Lean on me for the right, right, right
Behind horizons we will find, find, find
A said and sung piece of mind, mind, mind
Over and out into the wild

Lean on me for the right, right, right
Behind horizons we will find, find, find
A said and sung piece of mind, mind, mind
Over and out into the wild

Lean on me for the right, right, right
Behind horizons we will find, find, find
A said and sung piece of mind, mind, mind
Over and out into the wild

Cut a wire, be a bird
Shoot the messenger before he can say a word
We have nothing left to keep quiet about
