

Rock 'n' Roll Star (Born to Rock)

Bonfire

Easy on the eye but rotten to the core
Selling you advice designed to make you poor
Puppet on a string now what you gonna say
You just wanna plug in and play

Four on the floor - that is the beat within your soul
Four on the floor - that is the beat of Rock'n'Roll

You're born to rock

Easy on the eye and easy on the ear
Words can kill your primal fear
You rock till you drop but you'll never see a dime
Because you signed your name on the dotted line

You're born to rock
You're born to rock
You're born to rock
You're born to rock
