

Simple Man Wishing

Bosson

I get up, to get a real bite of life
A slice of love, no goodbyes
Still keeps me satisfied
I wanna hold on to that feeling
When you're not sure if your dreaming
I love, to fall asleep next to you

I'm just a simple man wishing
My queen stays by my side
And if she wants me, I'll promise to fight
I'm just a simple man wishing
my nightmares stays untrue
And if they do - I'll give my life, to you

I get up, to see the sun set again
Wishing that it never ends
Watching lovers turn to friends
I wanna feel like believing
Knowing you, gave me a meaning
I love, to fall asleep next to you

I'm just a simple man....
My queen stays by my side
And if she wants me, I'll promise to fight
I'm just a simple man wishing
my nightmares stays untrue
And if they do - I'll give my life, to you

In a world where everything remains in shadows
The only ray of light is knowing that You'll be by my side

I'm just a simple man...
My queen stays by my side
And if she wants me, I'll promise to fight
I'm just a simple man wishing
my nightmares stays untrue
And if they do - I'll give my life, to you
