

Finding it so hard just to get out of bed
I just can't wake up & I wish I was dead
Yeah I'm just drifting but the world doesn't care
Just tryna pay the rent but life ain't that fair

Has the world gone mad today or is it only me
Why do bad things only seem to happen to me

I wanna be the only one
I wanna be the only one

I wanna be the only one
I wanna be the only one

Why am I such a drag I'm so unfriendly
I wish that everything could be about me
There's panic in the air there's kids in the street
Don't think you know a single thing about me

Has the world gone mad today or is it only me
Why do bad things only seem to happen to me

I wanna be the only one
I wanna be the only one

I wanna be the only one
I wanna be the only one

You're reprehensible it's over your head
Why don't you watch the pretty colours instead
I wouldn't lie to you there's too much at stake
Got people killing people for the messes I make

I wanna be the only one
I wanna be the only one

I wanna be the only one
I wanna be the only one
