Bow Wow

Let's take a pause for a minute
Let's go
Check it out man
See man, Bow Weezy right here live and direct
I'm talking to you all young'ns out there baby
I can't wait until I turn eighteen
I know it's the same for you all
Man, I know, I know
I'm talking bout pulling up in them big cars on them 22's
Now forget that, I'm talking bout Charlie Woodsens man
I'm gonna pull up, I'm talking bout 24's
It's a wrap for you all when I turn eighteen
Listen to the hook

When I turn eighteen
I need to ride on some rims that's clean
And them brand new J's when I hit the scene
When I turn eighteen
I need a girlfriend older than me
And she gonna have to be a dime if she roll in wit me
When I turn eighteen
I pull up and stop, let my system knock
They all know I'm supercool when I drop the top
When I turn eighteen
I get my crib up on my first day
And every week we celebrate like it's my birthday
When I turn eighteen
Yeah

I'm gonna be leaning and dippin sittin on some inches riding
Get in that, women they loving my every sentence
It's Weezy baby
From the truck to the drop to the coup to the high 2's
See that you all, you gotta believe me baby
The game tight and the bank right
Since fame came in the bright light
You gotta release me baby
I can't be tied up
Can't be handcuffed to no chick at the party when I ride up
Cause I gotta mingle
I know I'm great with the lingo but check it
I gotta motivate, I just gotta be single
And yeah like when I see you
Yea like how you jingle
And yea said I'm gonna ring you but baby I can't bring you
Can't wait till the day comes
When I wake up and I'm eighteen
Not a young pup but a big dawg
And I bark loud and I switch cars
It sounds hard but it's not you all
When I get there that's it you all
Ninth day of the third month, it's on

When I turn eighteen
I need to ride on some rims that's clean
And them brand new J's when I hit the scene
When I turn eighteen

I need a girlfriend older than me
And she gonna have to be a dime if she roll in wit me
When I turn eighteen
I pull up and stop, let my system knock
They all know I'm supercool when I drop the top
When I turn eighteen
I get my crib up on my first day
And every week we celebrate like it's my birthday
When I turn eighteen
Yeah

Up in that H2 with them wheels to match
Got them big dawg speakers bumpin up in the back
Got that Snoop Dogg CD is what I insert
Roll down my windows, sounds like a concert
And on a beautiful day
I just might switch in the Rover
So fresh so clean like Outkast
APD can't pull me over
I'm big pimping like Jay-Z
Steady stunning like Baby
I need a girl like Free mixed with some Halle Barry
And a little hood which is good like Trina to be my lady
Just call me Cassius Clay
Baby cause I'm the greatest
And can't nobody my age can never ever fade this
I'm unfadeable
I'm untouchable
I'm on a mission now
I'm in transition now
B-O double double O double
It's Bow Wow
I'm in the house now and I'm up outta the pound
Now listen to the hook, this how it's going down

When I turn eighteen
I need to ride on some rims that's clean
And them brand new J's when I hit the scene
When I turn eighteen
I need a girlfriend older than me
And she gonna have to be a dime if she roll in wit me
When I turn eighteen
I pull up and stop, let my system knock
They all know I'm supercool when I drop the top
When I turn eighteen
I get my crib up on my first day
And every week we celebrate like it's my birthday
When I turn eighteen
Yeah

Yeah, you know what I'm saying
I'm speaking for all the young ones my age
Ya namean
Being told you can't do this
You can't get in here
And you wanna do it
This the song right here
This the anthem for us right here cause I'm one of them
Always told no, you can't get in
But you know what
That's gonna change man
When I

When I turn eighteen
I need to ride on some rims that's clean
And them brand new J's when I hit the scene
When I turn eighteen
I need a girlfriend older than me
And she gonna have to be a dime if she roll in wit me
When I turn eighteen
I pull up and stop, let my system knock
They all know I'm supercool when I drop the top
When I turn eighteen
I get my crib up on my first day
And every week we celebrate like it's my birthday
When I turn eighteen
