G D

Lately I feel so small

C E D G

Or maybe its just that my bed has grown

D C

I never noticed it before but you were there

E D A

So how was I to know

That this single bed

D D D

Was always meant for two

A C

Not just anyone

G D G

It was meant for me and you

G D E

And now your halfway round the world

C D G

And im just a day behind

D E

Nothin seems to fill the hole

C D G

That i have since you left my side

D E

You'll always be my little girl

C D G

Though i cant hold you tonight

D E

And now your halfway round the world

C D G

And i'm just a day behind

(G D C E D G) (2x)

G D

I wake up in the night

C E D G

I turn around and find that you're not there

D C

I just like to watch you sleep and lay by you

E D G

I love to feel you near

D

I think im going crazy

C E D G

Everyday confusion starts to grow

D

I never noticed it before

C E D A

But you were there so how was I to know
