

From the Rooftops

Bowling For Soup

She hates my friends, my friends hate her
Takes all my time, makes me late for work
She's got another guys name tattooed on her ass
My mom and dad say we're moving too fast
She doesn't like my band but the stickers on her car
She likes Star Trek but I prefer Star Wars
Kisses me deadly but she makes me alive
She's the opposite of everything I need in my life

But when you know, you know

Have you ever been so in love
You wanna shout it from the rooftops, from the rooftops
Ever been so in love
You wanna shout it from the rooftops, from the rooftops

I watch TV and she reads books
When bitches talk to me they get dirty looks from her
She really doesn't mind when I drink my beer
And I really don't care if she wears underwear
I rock all black and she can't stand
That I dress like the dudes in Simple Plan
She's all wrong, but it's alright
She can be all wrong right by my side

Cause when you know, you know

Have you ever been so in love
You wanna shout it from the rooftops, from the rooftops
Ever been so in love
You wanna shout it from the rooftops, from the rooftops

Follow your heart, fuck everybody else
Follow your heart, fuck everybody else
Follow your heart, fuck everybody else
Follow your heart, fuck everybody else
Follow your heart, fuck everybody else
Follow your heart, fuck everybody else
Follow your heart, fuck everybody else
Follow your heart, fuck everybody else
Ever been so in love
You wanna shout it from the rooftops, from the rooftops
Ever been so in love
You wanna shout it from the rooftops, from the rooftops
Ever been so in love
You wanna shout it from the rooftops, from the rooftops
Ever been so in love
You wanna shout it from the rooftops, from the rooftops
