

The Village

Boy & Bear

Where did I go, how did I come to reach this place?
If only I'd learned to let them hold me.

There's a beggar with gold, said he made a village built with c lay,
before it all got washed away.

Oooh Oooh

Oooh Oooh

Down by the river where the river is so cold,
and the older women come to play.

Steady my heart cos the pattern of your soul is spoken in the rhythm of yesterday.

Na na na yeah
Na na na yeah
Na na na yeah
Na na na yeah

Where did I go, how did I come to reach this place?
If only I'd let the beggars show me,
To the valley of gold where once stood the village build with c lay,
Before it all got washed away.
