

Where'd You Go

Boy & Bear

Hey boy, now, what you making?
Looking up as you go
I heard your voice just the other day, on the radio

But like an ancient shrine that has swallowed your mind
Well, you lost yourself with nothing to say
I'd not the heart to ask you to stay

Sweet times, all made up in my mind
Where'd you go?
Where'd you go?
Where'd you go?

Where'd you go?

I know that wonder couldn't wake you
From a slumber so slow
Hazy Jane, well you known my name for a while now

And all that wasted time following dotted lines
Is enough to send a man insane
I'd not the heart to ask you to stay

Sweet times, all made up in my mind
Where'd you go?
Where'd you go?
Where'd you go?

Now I'm walking up
The same mountain I climbed everyday
Can almost hold it, but honey I tried
Sweet times all made up in my mind

Where'd you go?
Where'd you go?
Where'd you go?
Where'd you go?
Where'd you go?
