

Brand New

Boy George

I just wanna meet you sometime... soon.

Show me a million strangers,
I'll always find a broken boy,
drunk and laughing in some corner
By the dancefloor.

Did you want me, did you lie?
Maybe I don't mind.
So much promised in your eye.

I don't wanna change the world.
I know I can't change you.
Maybe I can change myself,
Make me all Brand New.

Make me all Brand New.
Make me all Brand New.

I just wanna meet you sometime... soon.

I never sense the danger.
Sometimes I know I'm not that smart
Why'd you say, "That's what you get."
Or, "Take or leave me?"

Did you want me? Did you lie?
Hey, baby, I don't mind.
So much promised in your lie.

I don't wanna change the world.
I know I can't change you.
Maybe I can change myself,
Make me all Brand New.

Make me all Brand New.
Make me all Brand New.

I don't wanna change the world.
I know I can't change you.
Maybe I can change myself,
Make me all Brand New.

I don't wanna change the world,
Do you?

Maybe I could change myself,
Make me all Brand New.

I don't wanna change the world.
I know I can't change you.
Maybe I can change myself,
Make me all Brand New.
