

Be Somebody

Boy Kill Boy

Just suppose I'm nearly done
And the crows are coming in wide
I could leave her for a while
At the most I'm leaving inside

Just suppose I'm killing time
Since the tide's still keeping me here
Maybe I'm just felling fine
And this smile is never sincere

I could be somebody
I could be somebody else
I could save some money
I could be somewhere else

Shut up and follow the sings
Get up and feel ourselves
Get up on the winning side
Sit up and see what sells

Just suppose I'm nearly done
And the crows are coming in fast
I could stay her for a while
At the most I'm staying inside

Just suppose I'm killing time
Since the tide's still keeping me here
Maybe I'm just felling well
And this smile is never sincere

I could be somebody
I could be somebody else
I could save some money
I could be somewhere else

Shut up and follow the sings
Get up and feel ourselves
Get up on the winning side
Sit up and see what sells
