

Man of Steel

Brantley Gilbert

There's who I am and who I wanna be
Yeah, I got some things I gotta figure out
And I don't know what you see in me
But I'mma love you 'til my last sun goes down
And my days are through
'Cause when it comes to you, yeah

I wanna be your man of steel
Be your shoulder, be your shield
Your rock when the roll of the road, starts goin' to hell
Or goin' downhill
And if you think you ain't strong enough
Yeah I wanna pick you up
I got your six when it hits the fan for real
I wanna be your man of steel

I want you to feel invincible
Yeah, I want you to feel bulletproof
I'll take the shot if the trigger's pulled Yeah, I'll take on the world if I have to Yeah, all your fights are mine
Just let 'em cross that line

I wanna be your man of steel
Be your shoulder, be your shield
Your rock when the roll of the road, starts goin' to hell
Or goin' downhill
And if you think you ain't strong enough
Yeah I wanna pick you up
I got your six when it hits the fan for real
I wanna be your man of steel
Yeah, yeah, oh

I wanna be your man of steel
Be your shoulder, be your shield
Your rock when the roll of the road, starts goin' to hell
Or goin' downhill
And when you think you ain't strong enough
Yeah I wanna pick you up
I got your six when it hits the fan for real
I wanna be your man of steel
I wanna be your man of steel, yeah-yeah
Steel
