

Never Gonna Be Alone

Brantley Gilbert

I can't promise you my wild side won't show up from time to time
In the end I can't change who I am
And I can't say this highway won't stop howlin' out my name
'Til I'm out on two wheels, back on black again
Even if I can't slow down
Girl, I'm gonna tell you right now

As long as there's a fast lane
It'll bring me back to you
Girl, I'll open that throttle, hell or high water
And leave it all in smoke
Long as I'm breathin'
Yeah, baby, you're the reason
Even when my heart's a thousand miles from home
You're never gonna be alone

And I know I'm gettin' pulled in a million different directions
Girl, you know you always have been my true north
Or in my case, girl, that's southbound
And I'm on my way right now

As long as there's a fast lane
It'll bring me back to you
Girl, I'll open that throttle, hell or high water
And leave it all in smoke
As long as I'm breathin'
Yeah, baby, you're the reason
Even when my heart's a thousand miles from home
You're never gonna be alone
Oh, you're never gonna be alone
No, you're never gonna be alone
No

No man alive, no red light or blue light's gonna stop me
If you need me girl, just say the word, you know you got me

As long as there's a fast lane
It'll bring me back to you
Girl, I'll open that throttle, hell or high water
And leave it all in smoke
As long as I'm breathin'
Yeah, baby, you're the reason
Even when my heart's a thousand miles from home
You're never gonna be alone
You're never gonna be alone, nah
