

Recall

Brave Saint Saturn

It was all about acceleration
All for notoriety
All about the destination
Driven by my own abilities

Rocket shuttered screamed and then fell away
Lift this juggernaut into the sky
Radio waves in the frozen night
Spelling, 'I miss you'

Like a flicker of light in the back of my mind
And it all comes back to me
Like an overdue sunrise it all comes back to me

There's nothing like complete exhaustion
The atrophy of complete defeat
The feeling of the world upon my shoulders
And realizing I am incomplete

Well, there's a lot of freedom in failure
Of recklessness, of weightless abandonment
I remember light coming through stained glass
And it reminds me

Like a flicker of light in the back of my mind
And it all comes back to me
Like an overdue sunrise it all comes back to me

I remember Your love being better than life
When it all comes back to me
I will sing in the shadows, when it all comes back
When it all comes back, when it all comes back to me

When it all comes back to me, when it all comes back to me
When it all comes back to me, when it all comes back to me, yeah
h
Yeah, yeah, back to me, it all comes back, it all comes back to me
It all comes back, it all comes back to me
Back to me, back to me, back to me, back to me
