

7th Andy

Brazzaville

Love is coming round the bend tonight
Androids stroll beneath the moon
Distant comets fading light
Mild as Los Angeles June
Circa 2092

7th Andy
With his smooth titanium skin
He's not of the world of sin

Tiny sand dunes on the beach tonight
A couple sitting by the fire

Bioluminescent lights
Echoes of human desires
In their silicon and wires

7th Andy
With his smooth titanium skin
He's not of the world of sin
A cyber dandy
With his carbon fiber hair
And his 19th century flair
