I'm The Type Of Person To Take It Personal

Breathe Carolina

It's on now
Any minute
Now that we've seen it all
Any day now
Waiting for your curtain to fall
Any second
You called but I'm calling you out
Any minute
I've never been one to give in
Any day now
It has to end before we begin
Any second
You called but I'm calling you out

These eyes, they see more than you know We're all dressed in our best so take it or leave it

Nobody make a move, everybody on the ground Let me see your hands, bring the fucking cameras out You better use your head, you better use your head Before we take it off your motherfucking shoulders

Any minute
Any day now
Any second
You called but I'm calling you out
Any minute
I've never been one to give in
Any day now
It has to end before we begin
Any second
You called but I'm calling you out

These eyes, they see more than you know We're all dressed in our best so take it or leave it

I've got all the plans in the world To take everyone hostage, in a National Bank Instead of money, I want fame Bring on the cameras, bring on the lights Roll tape, call action, it's showtime

Any minute Any day now Any second

These eyes, they see more than you know We're all dressed in our best so take it or leave it
