

Barcelona

Brendan James

Antoni Gaudí
I'm Antoni sorry
You got skills, my friend
Skills I never knew
The tourists, they love ya
Today they can keep ya
I got a son here with a birthday
He's turning two

And all he wants to do is chew gum
We've been promising that since year one
All he wants to ride is a double-decker bus
So much, that double-decker bus

Oh Barcelona, you're so beautiful
So rustic and well-traveled through
I hate to tell ya, unlike everyone
This time we did not come here for you

Walking, lost ramblers
Taking our chances
With two kids who have no eaten
Since breakfast time
So much to see here
So much to do
But then we remember
This day's for Milo
He's turning two

And all he wants to do is chew gum
We've been promising that since year one
All he wants to ride is a double-decker bus
So much, that double-decker bus

Oh Barcelona, you're so beautiful
So rustic and well-traveled through
I hate to tell ya, unlike everyone
This time we did not come here for you
Yeah, it's true

La Sagrada Família
We want to come inside and see
La Sagrada Família
But tickets aren't available till next week
Come on

All he wants to do is chew gum
We've been promising that since year one
All he wants to ride is a double-decker bus
So much, that lazy rip off bus

Oh Barcelona, you're so beautiful
So rustic and well-traveled through
I hate to tell ya, unlike everyone
This time we did not come here for you
We did not come here for you
Next time we'll come back for you
