

Let Your Beat Go On

Brendan James

If he came down from heaven and cleared the lines from your face
Said so long to the mistakes and questions and start over again

Look in his eyes you'll find your own reflection
A face of hardship and pain.
You're money saved and spent.. your loves and losses
their not worth it, again.

Let your beat go on forever
they say we're made to live as one let this need to fear each other not be passed on to my son.
Let your beat go on forever let your fears down rivers run,
let the silence be the music when their words are said and done

Now fate lands you out in the open slave to the man inside of your head.
You're second chances, their buried deep in rock canyons,
as you lie here in your bed.

chorus (so let your beat go on... )

I feel like as people we're afraid to question afraid of our heavens and our hells my mother raised me with strength and measure my father raised me too late.

.interlude.

So let your beat go on forever
Yes we are meant to live as one
let this need to fear each other not be passed on to my son,
Let your beat go on forever, let your fears down rivers run,
let the silence be the music when their words are said and done
